Triple Trek™ Ultrabook™ Optimised Messenger

K62590EU

Product Description

You don’t have to work as a messenger or even ride a fixie bike to appreciate the Kensington Triple Trek Ultrabook Messenger bag. It combines rugged good looks and thoughtful functionality to help you transport an Ultrabook, tablet—or both—in comfort and style. Central to the Ultrabook Messenger bag are fleece-lined compartments that surround your Ultrabook, tablet and Smartphone in soft, scratch-free protection. You’ll find plenty of room for those important files, too. Next up is an accessory pocket, perfect for power cords, a presenter, pens, stylus and more. There’s even a built-in carabineer clip to hold your keys. A quick-access storage pocket is perfect for holding transit tickets, ID badges—anything you want to keep at hand.

An additional back storage pocket adds to the Ultrabook Messenger’s functionality. If you’re traveling through an airport instead of city streets, the Ultrabook Messenger has a back storage pocket that unzips and converts into a trolley strap. It all adds up to make the Kensington Ultrabook Messenger bag the perfect way to get where you’re going and protect your Ultrabook.
